

SILENCE

exhibition of portraits of Roma women by Mersud Selman visual artist and student of Roma English Language Program, CEU
Opening speech by Tímea Junghaus art historian

Photo by Dániel Végel

6 pm, March 8, Tuesday, 2016
Oktagon, Central European University

BLACK SWANS

(2015, documentary, in Czech with English subtitles, 30 min., dir. by Zuzana Dubova)

6.30 pm, March 8, 2016 - Auditorium, CEU

Black Swans tells in a film poetic way the story of two Roma women. Dana lives in a traditional alliance with a Roma husband. Milada lives in a hostel with one of her daughters and her struggle for a better future is full of obstacles - medical complications, exclusion from her family and the impossibility of seeing her first-born daughter.

POSSIBILITIES OF ROMA WOMEN

7 pm, March 8, 2016 - Auditorium, CEU

Roma women face challenges every single day. Their struggles include not only discrimination from non-Roma but also within the Roma communities. How can Roma women be empowered to overcome the struggles and challenges?

Participants: Zuzana Dubova - film director, Katerina Hodicka - director of NORA, Reception to follow!