

Roma Access
Programs

CENTRAL EUROPEAN
UNIVERSITY

Roma Graduate Preparation Program End-of-year Student Seminar

Detailed Program

Monday, June 16

Location: CEU, Nádor street 11, TIGY room

9.00-9.30: Registration

9.30-10.00: Welcome and introductions by John Shattuck, CEU Rector and President, Katalin Farkas, CEU Provost and Prem Kumar Rajaram, Academic Director Roma Graduate Preparation Program

10.00-11.30: Student presentations Panel 1 chaired by: Marek Balaz

Jan Balaz: Affirmative actions from a practical and normative perspective

Marek Balaz: Roma participation in the case of Slovakia: NRIS 2020 and Roma Reform

Radosav Besic: Government budget benefits of Roma education

Atanas Stoyanov: Targeted versus universal policies for Roma, on the basis of the European Social Fund in Bulgaria

Questions & Answers

11.30-12.00: Coffee break

12.00-13.30: Student presentations Panel 2

Ildiko Csanya: “Come to the front and be a believer!” Hidden mechanisms of segregation in an Evangelical movement

Jozsef Marton: Racial profiling in Budapest 8th district

Arman Heljic: Roma masculinities: performativity, self-perception and social practices among RGPP men

Nikola Ludlova: Narratives of growing up as a man in a Romani family – reflections on constructing one's masculinity

Questions & Answers

13.30-14.30: Lunch break

14.30-16.00: Student presentations Panel 3 chaired by: Liviu Iulian Dinu

Marianna Jonas: The old Jobbik in the new? An analysis of a far right party's visual campaign materials

Andras Kallai: Ethicized Roma representation in Hungary: categorization in the fine arts based on Roma origin

Deniz Selmani: Model of minority representation: The case study of Roma in Macedonia

Anna Conkova: “That I am Roma does not mean that I will wear black trousers, a white shirt and hat on my head”. Establishing dialogue between fashion designers

Questions & Answers

Roma Access
Programs

CENTRAL
EUROPEAN
UNIVERSITY

Roma Graduate Preparation Program End-of-year Student Seminar

Detailed Program

Tuesday, June 17

Location: CEU, Nádor street 11, TIGY room

9.30-10.00: Registration

10.00-11.45: Student presentations Panel 4 chaired by: Jashar Jasharov

Jashar Jasharov: The problem of not being able to obtain a Personal Identification Card (ID)

Krisztina Koszegi: Death penalty and life imprisonment

Nadire Redjepi: Profit and losses - effects of migration on the budget of the Republic of Macedonia

Senada Sali: The status of stateless people under the International Public Law: concept, regulation, problems and possible solutions

Elvis Shakjiri: Discrimination against Roma at the borders of Macedonia: state obligations regarding freedom of movement in International and European Human Rights law

Questions & Answers

11.45-12.30: Coffee break

12.30-14.15: Student presentations Panel 5 chaired by: Liviu Iulian Dinu

Katalin Nemeth: Teacher incentives within education systems

Jelena Savic: Occupational freedom and benefiting the worse off

Liviu Iulian Dinu: Polishing a profession – being a video chat model in Romania

Yanina Fyudr: Ethnic discrimination in the labor market: lessons from Ukraine in light of EU and UN framework

Laszlo Oliver Jakab: Forms and extent of segregation of Roma students in Hungary

Questions & Answers

14.15-14.45: Alumni closing remarks

14:45-15:30: Reception