

CEU ROMA WEEK / 2018

Romani Studies Program Students cordially invite you to the first CEU Roma Week to mark the International Roma Day (April 8th) and to celebrate Roma culture and raise awareness of the issues that Roma people face throughout Europe.

CEU ROMA WEEK - OPENING EVENT

APRIL 24, 18:00 / AUDITORIUM A

Erika Lakatos, mini-concert

Opening of the exhibition Traditional Roma Crafts by Melinda Rézműves, organized with the support of CEU Center for Arts and Culture

Jelena Savić, poetry performance

-Reception to follow in the Lower Foyer, Nador 15-

ROMA, VICTIMS OF HATE CRIME

APRIL 25, 19:00 / NADOR 15, AUDITORIUM A

Storytelling performance by RGPP students and alumni about hate crimes against Roma in Europe, special edition of the CEU Hate Speech Monologues, Co-organized with European Roma Rights Centre and Peter Molnar

ROMA IDENTITY AND CULTURE WORKSHOP

APRIL 26, 13:30 / NADOR 15, 104

Workshop for CEU students, alumni, faculty, staff, and friends, Co-organized with UCCU Foundation

-please register here-

FILM SCREENING: "OUR SCHOOL"(Școala noastră) by Mona Nicoară

APRIL 26, 18:00 / OSA, Arany János u. 32, 1051 Budapest

The film follows three Roma children from a small Transylvanian town in Romania who are among the first participants in an initiative to integrate the ethnically segregated Romanian schools.

Co-organized with Vera and Donald Blinken Open Society Archives

ROMA POLITICAL RESPONSE TOWARDS FAR-RIGHT DOCTRINES UPRaise ACROSS EUROPE

APRIL 27, 15:00 / NADOR 15, 106

Panelists:

Soraya Post – Member of European Parliament (recorded video message)

Angéla Kóczé – Assistant Professor, Romani Studies Program, CEU

Marius Taba – Lecturer at Corvinus University

Ágnes Daróczi – Cultural manager and journalist

Roland Ferkovics – Policy and Advocacy Officer, Roma Education Fund

Michal Mižigár – RGPP student, CEU

-Reception to follow on the 2nd floor of Nador 15 -

CLOSING EVENT: CONCERT AND ROMA THEMED AFTER PARTY

APRIL 27, 20:00 / CEU RESIDENCE CENTRE, Budapest Room and Bambus Bar

Szilvasi Gypsy Band, Romani Dance Group, DJ